

PICTORIAL BULLETIN

Board members (front row: Emma Mukuhi, Karen Nyamu, Vice Chair Lillian Beryl Okumu, Martin Mbichire (4th right, back row) and Ag. Managing Director Eng. Nahason Muguna pose for a group photo with the volleyball team.

4 x 100 Meters Relays. NCWSC took position one in athletics.

NCWSC volleyball ladies takes on Eldoret Water and Sanitation Company Ltd. NCWSC team won.

High jump competitions

NCWSC football team battles it out with Kakamega Water and Sanitation Company Ltd. NCWSC took position one.

Draughts players square it out. NCWSC was ranked position two overall.

Water Cabinet Secretary Simon Chelugui (far left), water committee chairman, Paul Kados (4th left) Board Chairman, Leonard Kamba (5th left, partly hidden) and Board member Charles Kerich (3rd Left) at Kenya's exhibition stand during World Water Week held in Stockholm recently.

Ag. Managing Director Eng. Nahason Muguna introduces the Board members to Kabete Treatment Works staff.

World Water Council WC President Lois Fauchon and Board Chairman, Leonard Kamba at the World Water Week in Stockholm, Sweden recently. The two agreed to work together towards a successful Water Security Conference to be held in April next year in Nairobi, Kenya. They also discussed cooperation between NCWSC and Marseille Water.

Board Chairman Leonard Munyao together with the board members pose for a group with the staff at Sasumua Dam.

Board members Mohamed Abdi Abdrahman (3rd left), Emma Mukuhi (3rd right), Timothy Muriuki (2nd right) is taken through the operations at Kabete Treatment Works by Ag. MD Nahason Muguna.

Board member Emma Mukuhi (3rd right) and Ag. Technical Director Eng. Lucy Njambi jointly plant a ceremonial tree with Sasumua Dam staff.