

PICTORIAL BULLETIN

NCWSC Managing Director, Eng. Nahason Muguna, (2nd Left), and World Waternet Chief Executive Officer, Frodo van Oostveen, exchange signed Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the two organizations. Looking on are: Ag. Technical Director Eng. Lucy Njambi (left) and World Waternet's Regional Manager of Asia, East Africa and Southern Africa., Marieke van Nood (far right). The phase II of the partnerships seeks to increase sustainable access to drinking water and sanitation by NCWSC.

Production Manager, Eng. Philip Githinji (far right) explains water treatment processes to Netherlands Deputy Head of Mission ,Joris van Bommel, (2nd left), when he toured the facility accompanied by World Waternet Chief Executive Officer, Frodo van Oostveen (3rd left) and Donor Projects Manager, Eng. Ephanta Mugo (2nd right) among other dignitaries

Ag. Technical Director Eng. Lucy Njambi receives a donation of field computers from Ralf de Gloof, World Waternet's Non-Revenue Water expert . She is flanked by Operations and Maintenance Manager, Samue Maina, Donor Projects Manager, Eng. Ephantus Mugo and Non-Revenue Water Manager, Eng. John Otieno. The device will be used for data capture to enhance better management of Non-Revenue Water

World Waternet Chief Executive Officer, Frodo van Oostveen (3rd right), Ag. Technical Director Eng. Lucy Njambi (4th left), Corporate Affairs Manager, Mbaruku Vyakweli (far right), Engineering Manager, David Manore, (2nd left), Donor Projects Manager, Eng. Ephantus Mugo (3rd left), Donor Projects Coordinator, Philip Oruoch (far right) during a dinner sponsored by World Waternet

Engineering Coordinator, Jackson Munuve, speaks during his farewell party

Staff led by Ag. Technical Director Eng. Lucy Njambi (4th, left, front row), Engineering Manager, David Manore, (far left, front row seated), and Ag. Informal Settlement Manager, Eng. Kagiri Gicheha (3rd left, front row seated) pose for a photo during a farewell party for Engineering Coordinator, Jackson Munuve, and Management Trainee– Civil Engineer, Kevin Njuki.

Corporate Affairs Manager, Mbaruku Vyakweli , gives his address during a breakfast meeting for the 9th World Water Forum set for March, 21 – 26, 2022 in Dakar, Senegal.

Delegates pose for a photo after a breakfast meeting for the 9th World Water Forum set for March, 21 –26, 2022 in Dakar, Senegal.

NCWSC Managing Director, Eng. Nahason Muguna, explains to Danish Minister for Environment, H.E Lea Wermelin, how billing has been enhanced and water loss reduced when the delegation visited Hazina estate, Nairobi ,to get a feel of customer experience using Kamstrap meters.

Kisumu Water and Sanitation Company Limited (KIWASCO) Systems Administrator ,Edward Gaya, (3rd right), and in- charge of new connections, Pauline Omenya (2nd left), when the two visited the Company to benchmark on the Online Application for Water and Sewer connection. The team was taken through the Customer Management Sytem led by Customer Relations Manager, Rose Kariuki (far left), Customer Care Officer, Hilda Kinyanyi (2nd right), Ag. Database Supervisor (right), Peter Mayeku and Customer Care Assistant, Francis Oduory (left)

NCWSC staff Francis Kenya (2nd right , front row), and Rose Muniafu, (far right, front row) pose for a photo after the two were elected unopposed as National Organizing Secretary and National Vice Secretary respectively during the Parastatals, Ministries, Companies and Counties Choirs (PAMICCCO) National Executive Committee (NEC) Elections.